

Invitation to online
NIM Symposium 2021
on
Laudato si' and Mission

Date: October 8, 2021

Time: 14.00-16.45 CEST

Location: Zoom

Registration before October 5, 2021 at nim@nim.ru.nl. After registration participants will get a Zoom link.

Description

In 2020 it was five years ago that Pope Francis promulgated his encyclical Laudato si'. In this encyclical, the Pope called for a new dialogue in shaping the planet's future: "We need a conversation which includes everyone, since the environmental challenge we are undergoing, and its human roots, concern and affect us all" (Laudato si', No. 14). In order to commemorate this jubilee, Cardinal Stefan Wyszyński University, Warsaw, Missio Aachen and Nijmegen Institute for Mission Studies (NIM) organized a conference on Laudato si' and Mission. Various topics were discussed such as the historical background of Laudato si', Laudato si' as a challenge for a missionary spirituality, socio-ethical perspectives of Laudato si', and Interdisciplinary and interreligious perspectives of Laudato si'. The contributions are now published as European Mission Studies No. 3. In this NIM Symposium, we will present and discuss this new book.

Program

14:00-14:10 Welcome and opening

14:10-14:30 Gerard Moorman, Laudato si' and Mission. A historical background

14:30-14:50 Klaus Vellguth, Eco-Spiritualities in Dialogue. Asian Theologies of Creation towards a Shared Responsibility for Creation

14.50-15.10 Discussion

14:10-15:30 Break

15:30-15:50 Wojciech Kluj OMI, Ecological Conversion and Missions. Expressions of "Ecological Conversion" in Polish internet

15:50-16:10 Frans Wijzen, The Ecological Challenge as a Common Concern. Muslims and Christians in Indonesia

16:10-16:30 Discussion

16:30-16:45 Final reflections and closing

European Mission Studies is edited by members of the International Association of Catholic Missiologists (IACM). Previous issues dealt with "Religious Plurality and Religious Identity" (2019), and "Mission in Europe" (2020). The next issue will deal with "Mission in times of Covid-19 and post-Covid-19".